

Sympathy Design Show

Featuring Allen Baney & Darcie Garcia AIFD

Wednesday, August 17, 1pm - 6pm

Dillon University presents: Today's Tributes & Memorials

Fresh & Modern Ideas for the Funeral Home and Home Delivery

Get inspired to create the kind of unique and meaningful floral tributes and memorials that today's customers demand.

Let's get Modern and Up-To Date with Tributes & Memorials.

Loosing a special family member or friend is a sadness as old as time- one we share with countless customers week after week and year after year. For the grieving in the days following, the experience is as uniquely personal as it gets.

If you're feeling in a rut, and you fear your designs are blending in with the crowd at the funeral home: it's time to step out and spend an afternoon at Dillon University fueling your creativity.

Instructor Allen Baney

Allen Baney is the owner and head designer of Avant Garden Inc in State College, PA. He has been involved in the floral industry for over 25 years with a love of floral design and expressing creativity with fresh floral products.

Being active in his community, he plans and designs charity and social events for various non-profit organizations and Penn State University. Allen lives in Bellefonte, PA with his wife and 2 sons and is currently pursuing his AIFD certification .

Instructor Darcie Garcia AIFD

Darcie Garcia AIFD is head designer for RichMar florist in Allentown, Pa, a high-volume shop which has given her the chops to keep up with the best of the best and instilled a keen business sense. On matters of productivity, creativity and technology, she paves the way at her shop and is more than happy to share her expertise with others.

Darcie was officially inducted into the AIFD in July of 2016 and regularly attends regional and national design education programs to keep up with current trends, techniques and products. She is a board member and Past President Teleflora Penn Jersey education unit.
